

THE MILITARY AND NAVAL MAGAZINE

OF THE
UNITED STATES.

VOLUME IV.

FROM SEPTEMBER, 1834, TO FEBRUARY, 1835.

47

EDITED AND PUBLISHED BY BENJAMIN HOMANS,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

1835.

U1
M25

5

INDEX, VOL. IV.

	Page.
Ante Revolutionary Times,	95
Apparatus (Dr. Smith's) for the treatment of fractures,	215
Army the	337
Staff of the,	69
Letter to the Commanding General of the,	179
Temperance in the,	350
Details and staff Appointments,	431
Medical Board of Examination,	186, 400
Orders—No. 49, 63;—No. 61 and 63 158;—No. 62, 154;—No. 68, 236;—No. 79, 399
Army and Navy, to the officers of the,	173
Arthur Tremaine,	34, 81 201, 272
Bahia, or St. Salvador,	368
Benjamin Bastien, Military life of,	106, 192, 264, 361, 411
Bonaparte's Officers in America,	98
Burial at Sea,	239
Character of a Sailor,	115
Charger the,	358
Congress, proceedings of	62, 395, 473
Count St. Leu,	287
Dialogue on promotion,	254
Dragoon, the to his steed,	295
Dry Rot,	501
Dupin's Naval Force of Great Britain,	212, 280, 325, 423
Editor's Olio,	155, 307, 472
Eve before battle,	100
Expedition to Alabama	112
Extract from a Log,	353
First Campaign of an A. D. C.	26
FOREIGN SELECTIONS. —Military Desertion; Court of Chancery and Courts Mar- tial; Royal Naval Medical Supplemental Fund; The Militia 48;—Belgian Army for 1834; Military forces of Sweden; The Spanish Army, 49;—Egypt- ian Army; Dutch Navy; Military Budgets of 13 States, 50;—Reduc- tion in the French Army; Grenadiers; Austrian Life Guards, 51;—Punish- ments in the Army, 52;—Pay of Naval Officers of various Powers; Nautical Surveys, America, 53;—Trigonometrical Survey; Plan for dividing ships' topsails, 54;—Water Tanks; Tides; Rowland's double Sextant; Important to Mariners, 55;—New gun carriages, 56;—Pay of British Soldiers; Dry Rot, 121;—Military medical officers, 122;—Exposure of infantry to fire of artiller- y; Improved gun carriages, 123;—Fleets and fortresses, 124;—Vents in guns, 125;—Hull firing, 126;—Chase firing; Laying out a bower anchor, 127 —Ancient launch, 128;—Methods at present in use for measuring tonnage, 129;—Nauscopic, 132;—Origin of the word 'impressment'; 'Cobler's Rock, 221;—Siege of Bhurtpore; Despatches of the Duke of Wellington, 222;— General return of the Russian forces; Punishments in the Russian Army, 223, —The Russian Army; Curious Coincidence; Relics of Napoleon's Army, 224;—Dry Rot, 305;—Prussian Army, 376;—Captain D. Thompson; Conduc- tors, 377;—Freemasonry in the 46th Regiment, 378;—Training of Soldiers, 379;—Neapolitan Army, 380;—Watering Ships, 381;—Queen of Prussia at the Battle of Jena, 382;—English and French soldiers, 383;—Duel be- tween two friends; Death of General Wolfe, 384;—Military organization of Prussia, 385;—Danish Army, 449;—British Gunpowder Establishments, 455; Mina the Guerilla, 456;—Equipment of Infantry, 457.
Fort Duquesne,	371
Frederick and Napoleon, compared,	284
French Navy,	293

INDEX.

GENERAL CORRESPONDENCE.—Regulations, 77 ;—Transportation, 73 ;—Letter from a Citizen, in reply to a Reader, 151 ;—Compliment to Stephen Reynolds, Esq. 153 ;—Army Uniform ; Letter from Fort Towson, 154 ;—Staff of the Army, 309 ;—Letter to A. Tremaine, 310 ;—General Association, 311 ;—Liability of Soldiers ; Letter from a Forecastleman, 312 ;—Marine Corps, 313 ;—Temperance in the Army, 314 ;—Ships' Pumps, 315 ;—Ordnance Regulations, 400 ;—Staff and Line, 476 ;—Navy Uniform, 477 ;—A word from the West, 473.

General Intelligence, 80, 159
German Military History, during the 16th century, 241
Griswold, Captain H. W. tribute of respect to, 315
Grampus, U. S. schooner, 68
Hopes and Fears, or Southern Cross, 261
Hotel des Invalides, visit to the, 290
Intercourse with British Officers, 104
Java in 183—, 406

LAWS of the United States ; Appropriations for the Army, 1834, 57 ;—For Armory at Harper's Ferry, additional ; To extend Privateer Pensions, 59 ;—For the better organization of the Marine Corps, 60 ;—Authorising transfers in the Naval Service ; for rebuilding the frigate Congress, 61 ;—Making certain allowances to the Marine Corps ; Appropriations for certain Fortifications ; To purchase live oak frames for a frigate and sloop of war, 133 ; To make experiments for the safety of the Steam Engine, 134 ;—To increase and regulate the pay of the Surgeons and Assistant Surgeons of the Army ; Concerning Naval Pensions, 135.

Leavenworth Gen. H. Biographical Sketch, 101 ;—Proceedings of Officers at Fort Jesup, 103.

Liability of Soldiers to arrest for debt, 190
Life in a Steerage, 356
Marine Corps, Organization of the, 239
Marriages and Deaths, 80, 160, 240, 320, 400, 480

Military Academy at West Point ; Report of the Committee on Military Affairs, H. R. 17 May, 1834, 137 ;—Report of the Board of Visitors, 225.

Military Intelligence, 79, 316, 473
Military Medical Service, 259
Naval Courts Martial, 317
Naval Fragments, 419
Naval Intelligence, 79, 153, 233 318, 480
Naval Life, No. 3, 5
Naval Tactics, 401
Navy the, 15, 92, 113, 161, 262, 321
Officers of the Revolutionary Navy, 96
Our own Affairs, 470

POETRY.—The Son of Ocean, 119 ;—Ship in a Storm, 120 ;—The Soldier's Requiem, 220 ;—Hopes and Fears, or Southern Cross, 261 ;—The Dragoon to his Steed, 295.

Poor Pay, Poor Preach, 421
Promotion, 117
Provident Society, another project for, 43
Rambling Notes on Sea and Shore, part 2, 17
Rank and Command, the terms, 277
Report of the Secretary of War, 1834, 339
the Navy, 460

Revenue Cutter Service, officers of the 465
Revolutionary Anecdote, 307
Revolutionary Reminiscence, 373
Ship in a Storm, 120

Soldier, the, 299
Soldier's Requiem, 220
Son of Ocean, 119
Stampede. a, 296

Statue of Thomas Jefferson, 475
Traditions of the War of American Independence, 433
Twilight at West Point, 423
Western Recruiting Depot, 73